

I oppose loosening the rules designed to promote and protect diversity of media ownership. These rules were adopted to ensure that the public would receive a diverse range of viewpoints from the media, and not simply the opinions of a handful of media conglomerates. The newspaper/broadcast cross-ownership cap is a crucial element of our democratic media, and it should not be weakened.

I oppose further cross-ownership of the media as not in the public interest. I feel also that the FCC should revoke the certification of those companies who are currently in violation of the FCC's current prohibition.
